WALDGUT - A Place for Learning and Exchange

The WALDGUT Naturresort offers a distinctive setting for seminars, workshops and retreats. Away from everyday routines, it provides space for focused work, meaningful exchange and sustainable learning.

Away from everyday life, surrounded by nature, a seminar environment that promotes clarity, exchange and new perspectives.

For seminars of up to 25 participants, our stylish seminar room is available.

Whether for internal LOLA seminars, as a selected seminar venue for experienced trainers and coaches, or as the first official learning location of the IAW (International Academy of Sciences) in the German-speaking region, WALDGUT provides a professional framework for a wide range of seminar and event formats.

- Seminars led by national and international trainers and coaches
- Thematic and event series
- Discussion and interview evenings
- Charity events

- Seminar room located away from regular hotel activity
- Direct access to the rooftop terrace
- Indoor and outdoor areas can be combined
- (weather permitting)

What Makes Seminars at WALDGUT Special

- Located in the Saxon Switzerland National Park
- Inspiring surroundings & 130,000 m² of natural space
- Catering options from light to indulgent
- Overnight accommodation in the hotel or chalet
